Hello Brahm,

I'm following up on our phone conversation last week regarding tools enabling download of the IEDB database. As we discussed, an IEDB software license is not needed for the tools on RosettaCommons, though we ask that you include citation info (see text below) along with any IEDB-related content. If you will provide a link for users to directly download any of the predictive algorithms distributed by the IEDB (e.g. NetMHCII, Jensen et al. 2018), please direct users to the IEDB Analysis Resource page or to the specific tool of interest, e.g. MHC-II, as necessary. Let me know if there are questions or if I can provide further information.

Thank you for working with LJL on this matter and best of luck moving forward.

Regards,
Colleen

Citing the IEDB

Users are requested to cite the IEDB when they present information obtained from the IEDB: <http://www.iedb.org>. The journal reference for the IEDB should be cited as: Vita R, Mahajan S, Overton JA, Dhanda SK, Martini S, Cantrell JR, Wheeler DK, Sette A, Peters B. The Immune Epitope Database (IEDB): 2018 update. Nucleic Acids Res. 2019 Jan 8;47(D1):D339-D343. doi: 10.1093/nar/gky1006. PMID: 30357391.
